Jean-Philippe Arroyo has been a partner of JP Karsenty for more than 10 years, after 9 years as an associate in the firm.

He mainly advises on competition law, distribution law, contracts, consumer law and intellectual property law, as well as on new information technologies and personal data protection.

Jean-Philippe Arroyo acts in these areas for French and foreign clients in a variety of sectors (tech, automotive/motorcycle, luxury goods, fashion, retail, health, toys, wine, etc.), and assists companies ranging from French SMEs to a US tech giant.

In both his litigation and advisory work, Jean-Philippe Arroyo, with the help of his team, always strives to find effective, creative and well-thought-out solutions and arguments for the benefit of his clients.

To feed his work and creativity as well as to share his thoughts and knowledge, he has written several articles in his fields of expertise, and regularly speaks at conferences and training sessions.

In the same spirit of exchange, sharing, experience and with the objective of discovering different cultures and ways of thinking and working, he is a member of several legal associations, in his fields of expertise, and at the international level. In particular, he is Secretary General of AIJA (International Association of Young Lawyers), and a member of the Executive Committee of AFEC (Association Française d'Etude de la Concurrence).
