A member of the Paris Bar since 2024, Julie Scuccimarra joined JP Karsenty in November 2023.

Julie is involved in all aspects of employment law, both in terms of individual and collective labour relations and employee health and safety, and assists French and foreign clients, more particularly Italian, both in counseling and in litigation.

She also assists the firm's clients in the negotiation, drafting and execution of commercial leases and guides them in managing their litigation issues.

Julie has a particular expertise in contractual civil liability, thanks to her training in in-depth civil law.
