- Humboldt-Universität, Berlin, Master's degree

After obtaining a double degree in Law and Management at the University of Paris 1 Sorbonne, Mado-Luna Gaudel specialized in Intellectual Property. The Master II in Literary, Artistic and Industrial Property enabled her to acquire some solid basis in the field of copyright, trademark and patent law.

Mado-Luna joined JP Karsenty in September 2022 as an associate, and works in collaboration with the intellectual property team and the wine law team.

In the field of intellectual property, she assists the firm's French and foreign clients, from various sectors, in their trademark, copyright and data protection issues.

In the area of wine law, Mado-Luna works in a number of areas, such as the defense of wine trademarks, the defense of appellations of origin and geographical indications, the organization of trade agreements, labeling rules, the Loi Evin, etc.

Finally, she has developed skills in both consulting and litigation.
