Martine Karsenty-Ricard has been a partner at JP Karsenty since 1977.

Martine's practice focuses on intellectual property law, advertising law and distribution law, for French and foreign clients in a wide range of industries (automotive, luxury goods, mass retail, pharmaceuticals, wine, etc.) and she assists companies of all sizes, from SMEs to Cac 40 companies and American technology giants.

Thanks to her experience in litigation in these different fields of expertise, she provides her clients with pragmatic and creative solutions.

Martine is a regular speaker at conferences she organizes or is invited to and contributes to numerous publications. Her participation in the activities of various national and international associations allows her to exchange experiences and maintain a network of competent and reliable correspondents.
