Arbitration

JP Karsenty has developed a recognized expertise in arbitration law. He regularly acts in domestic and international arbitration proceedings before various institutions, including the Chamber of Commerce and Industry (ICC).

Thanks to its cross-functional and multidisciplinary approach, the firm assists its clients before arbitral tribunals in complex disputes. The firm is active in many sectors such as energy, aerospace, automotive, health and new technologies.

JP Karsenty also assists its clients in judicial disputes related to arbitration proceedings, such as the enforcement or annulment of arbitral awards, and the obtaining of protective measures.

Martine Karsenty-Ricard and Paul Ricard also act as arbitrators in domestic and international arbitrations.