

Litigation In Intellectual Property And Intangible Property Law

Since its creation, JP Karsenty has combined consulting and litigation to offer its clients the best possible services. Convinced that they are inseparable, the practice of one serving the other, JP Karsenty has put litigation at the heart of its activity.

Thanks to their renowned practice in intellectual property and IP/IT law, the firm's teams accompany and assist clients in the litigation and pre-litigation phases of intellectual property and intangible law cases.

The firm's lawyers represent clients before all courts, whether civil or commercial, and more particularly before courts specialized in intellectual property law.
