Litigation In The Field Of Business Law

Since its creation, JP Karsenty has always combined advisory and litigation work to offer its clients the best possible services. Convinced that they are inseparable, the practice of one serving the other, JP Karsenty has placed litigation and the resulting risk management at the heart of its activity.

Thanks to their multidisciplinary expertise, the firm's teams support and assist our clients in the various areas of business law.