

Corporate Law/ Governance

In a constant search for transparency and governance adapted to the evolution of society, companies need more than ever precise and innovative legal support from their creation.

Corporate law is at the heart of a large part of the firm's activities, which supports its clients in the management of their companies, whether listed or not. JP Karsenty advises and assists its clients throughout the life cycle of the company: choice of the structure, follow-up and assistance in the day-to-day management of the company. It assists its clients in the realization of development and restructuring operations. JP Karsenty also offers its clients to set up the rules of conduct of the company, adapted to their development projects.

The members of the team have significant experience in this field, enabling them to assist their clients in court to deal with litigation related to their activities.
